Dear Parents/Guardians,

On Wednesday, October 30, Mrs. Oquendo and Mrs. Aguilar's World Citizenship Club students are invited to attend El Museo De Las Americas to attend an art/cultural workshop. We feel that attending this workshop will be an amazing language, art, and cultural experience for our club members. Here is the description of the focus of this museum: "Museo has been working with the community for over 3 decades establishing a reputation for serving children with cultural creative experiences and workshops that translate to lifelong Museum goers. Through our cultural workshops offered to schools, libraries and organizations you get the opportunity to get an immersive and inspiring experience at our museum that corresponds with a learning and creative hands-on activity in our classrooms. It is the mission and focus of these cultural workshops to highlight and educate some of our most treasured arts and cultures in Latin America." Migrants: A Tale of Two Hearts

October 10, 2024-January 26, 2025 This exhibit presents...

DÍA DE MUERTOS – A Living Tradition

In our most popular workshop, students decorate sugar skulls and create paper marigolds and papel picado. Students will leave this workshop with a better understanding of how life and death are celebrated during Día de Muertos and have a chance to celebrate their own loved ones through art. We will discuss the concept of cultural evolution and explore how colonization has influenced traditions.
